Report on the Investigation Department of IBSSA

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES AND SECURITY

SECURITY NETWORK arises in the new millennium: its purpose is to create a new structure able to satisfy the very recurrent demands for global and international security.

SECURITY NETWORK has its head office in Milan (Italy) and branch offices in its adherent states. It is a union composed by companies operating in various areas of security that, with a strong and logic participation, are interested in the control of their activities through concrete proposals able to promote and support the development of its members.

All this system has the purpose to bestow to individual companies the competitive strength to face with local, national and international trades.

Targets: SECURITY NETWORK wants to preserve the interests of its members and to increase their competitiveness by developing a series of services in the vanguard.

Moreover, its aim is to acquire orders from public and private customers as for account of its members through the promotion of the innovative system of global service in security areas with international operativeness.

Its last purpose is to become a referring point fro the commercial and industrial companies with international interests.

We are at your complete and total disposal for other information by calling to the telephone number + 39 80 501 37 61 or +39 80 502 01 01 and asking for Mrs. Barbara NARDELLI.
