Special Course for celebrating the opening of a new official IBSSA office of Italy

During the weekend of 26 – 28th May 2005 IBSSA Italy celebrated the opening of its official office. The celebration included a special security forces course, which was held the first time in Italy.

The participants of the course came from various Special Forces unit, soldiers and other official police forces.

During the event Mr. Remo GRASSETTI – IBSSA coordinator in Italy – and his staff Mr. Fabio BIANCUCCI and Colonel Davide BOCCI together with IBSSA General Secretary, Prof. Rony KLUGER held some important meetings with senior officers from the Italian Army, Gendarmeries, Police Forces and other officials.

No question that IBSSA is moving strongly and in a very positive way in Italy.
